

A soul mate is someone to whom we feel profoundly connected, as though the communication and communing that takes place between us were not the product of intentional efforts, but rather a divine grace. This kind of relationship is so important to the soul that many have said there is nothing more precious in life.

Thomas Moore

*A*re you looking for a wedding celebration that is much more than a civil service; a spiritual wedding ceremony that will long be remembered by every guest? Are you looking for a non-denominational wedding that speaks to the heart and honours the love and commitment that you are giving to each other; where the joy, light and laughter of this momentous occasion is shared with family and friends?

*If so, please call me
complimentary consultation!*

Creating Non-Denominational

Spiritual Wedding Ceremonies that celebrates your Heart and Soul

You and your loved one deserve a Beautiful Ceremony that has been written just for the two of you ...

A wedding celebration that honours and speaks to the joy and love that you hold for one another.

A wedding celebration that reflects the gift of love that you are and the gift that both of you have decided you want to give and share with the other.

Rev. Bruce will, with your help, create a wedding celebration that is a 'forever' expression honouring the commitment that you are giving to each other.

Whether you are looking for a more traditional or contemporary ceremony, Rev. Bruce will honour who you are, with a ceremony that is spiritual and speaks to the heart, to capture the essence of your decision to wed.

His spontaneous, sensitive and inclusive nature will extend to your family and guests so that everyone present becomes a part of the celebration.

This is a time of deep commitment, when two hearts joined as one can support each other's self discovery. Your ceremony will be presented with the reverence, respect and joy in which your commitment was first made.

Trust the Sacredness of Love

As I place this ring on your finger, I make a commitment to honour, cherish, nurture and respect not only you but myself as well – and in this wholeness, I know our marriage will flourish in all good things... peace, harmony and love. I will walk beside you in dignity and grace for the rest of our days.

Feel the Heart of Love

A marriage... makes of two lives a whole. It gives to two lives a work and double the strength of each to perform it. It gives to two questioning natures a reason for living, and something to live for. It will give a new gladness to the sunshine, a new fragrance to the flowers, a new beauty to the earth and a new mystery to life.

Hear the Language of Love

I, Susan, choose you Jason, my best friend, to be my husband and my companion for life.

Weddings With a Difference

The love you share together is unique unto itself, so perhaps you might wish to create a ceremony that gives voice to your unique expression of life!

Perhaps you are close to the earth and would like to incorporate the ritual gifts of native chants and drumming. Or maybe, in your ceremonial rite of passage, you feel strongly about your lineage and wish to create the entire event honouring your ancestral heritage.

Here are some optional rituals designed to include special family members or your guests.

For the Bride and Groom

Commemorative candle honouring those who are not physically in attendance but are spiritually present.

Commitment vows are a heartfelt expression between the bride and groom.

Exchange of the Roses – symbolizes both the spiritual and material aspects of marriage.

Hand Fasting – a Celtic tradition that savours the blessing found in the power of three.

For mothers, the bride and groom and the children in second marriage ceremonies;
A unity Candle – the lighting of which symbolizes a new energy, a new love and a new commitment in our world.

For your families and all your guests;
A blessing of the stone – an engraved stone passed amongst your guests for all to embrace and give of their blessing.
